Nell Healy Wicklow Parish People of the year awards in association with The Rotary Club of Wicklow

The Wicklow Parish People of the Year Awards provides an opportunity for the people of Wicklow parish to acknowledge individuals and groups or organisations who have made a real difference to their community. There are many unsung heroes living in our community. The awards mark the huge contribution that these individuals and groups made to our community, over the previous 12 months, prior to the awards ceremony

The awards will be made at a function where those people will be recognised for their contribution to their community. The people of the parish can nominate their chosen nominee who must live in the parish of Wicklow (incl. Rathnew). This can be done using the attached nomination form. These voting procedures are simple and reduce the amount of work for the committee selected to oversee the process.

The use of social media and local press and notice boards will be used to highlight the process and procedures of the awards
